

Graphic Facilitation as a tool of learning

Tue, 21/10/2014 - 19:51 -- Vanda Kovács

Type of tool:

Activity

Duration:

60-90 min

Topics addressed:

Peer Education

Coaching

Graphic facilitation is the practice of using words and images to create a conceptual map of a conversation therefore it can be a valuable tool at non-formal learning environments.

Aim:

to translate complex ideas into words and pictures which support the group productivity

Methodology:

visualization

Step by step process:

1. Introduction with a doodle.
2. Warm up with a portrait drawing exercise.
3. Introduction of graphic facilitation (aims and ways of use)
4. Get to know the tools.
5. DRAW! Tricks and hints
6. Closing, reflection

Materials and resources:

- A4 white papers 80 g 4 / participants (80 pieces)
- 20 pieces thin black marker
- 20 pieces thick black marker (Chisel)
- 20 pieces thick colourful marker
- 20 pieces of card board
- 4 scissors
- 1 masking tape

flipchart paper

Outcomes:

- some nice and some even nicer drawings of participants
- the awoken interest in visualization
- discovered ability to draw / changing attitude /

Evaluation:

One workshop can be enough to reach the mentioned outcomes, but usually practice is necessary afterwards.

Rating:

Average: 5 (2 votes)

Source URL: <https://educationaltoolsportal.eu/educationaltoolsportal/en/tools/graphic-facilitation-tool-learning>